Columbia Play Project is dedicated to creating exploratory play opportunities for the young and the young-at-heart. Through a variety of hosted activities, guided classes and engaging special events, Columbia Play Project makes exploratory play available in Clark County, WA. Your generous support will provide educational engagement for children who would otherwise not have access.

Annual Events

Wiggles and Giggles

Columbia Play Project's Wiggles and Giggles series brings music and science performances to children and families at Kiggins Theater and is planned monthly for January through March, annually.

CPP Spring Luncheon

Columbia Play Project's is introducing an adults event! CPP is inviting community members and organizations to a talk by Dr. Jana Mohr Lone, author of The Philosophical Child and Seen but Not Heard.

Family Play Day

Family Play Day is an annual event, hosted at Waterfront Park, that brings together the entire community for a day of free fun and unity. Join this event to learn more about kid and family-serving local organizations while enjoying music, theater, games and more.

Grandparents' Play Day

Grandparents need play too! GPD is all about bringing exploratory play to Clark County through intergenerational activities to build bonds.

Bricktastic!

Bricktastic showcases creativity and engineering feats through brick building. The yearly event hosts participants of all ages and is fun for the builders or those who stop by to see the creations.
